

Darlene Thorne

Thorne is presently on the board of directors of the Cupertino Historical Society and is a former executive director of two Silicon Valley chambers of commerce. She has served on 16 other boards of directors for non-profit organizations and spent a year on the Santa Clara County Civil Grand Jury.

Historian Darlene Thorne presents a PowerPoint program using her extensive postcard collection of 50 years duration. The images depict a range of 120 years.

Here's a 100-year-old glimpse of The Valley of Heart's Delight. The Valley supplied 90 percent of the prunes in the United States

Parlor 81 of the San Jose Native Daughters of the Golden West prepare for the Admission Day Parade in 1907.